Tyger River Park is Spartanburg County's premier park, containing 13 youth baseball/softball fields, a clubhouse, and a large playground. The facility was built to attract youth sports tournaments, a role that it has played well. Since the park was opened in March 2012, it has hosted 79 tournaments, involving more than 3,600 teams that came to Spartanburg from as far away as Texas and Michigan. The park has helped facilitate direct visitor spending in Spartanburg County of more than $24.79 million from March 2012 through November 2013. The park also hosts baseball and softball recreational leagues.
