 Glenda Dole is a graduate of The University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She joined Duke Energy (formerly Duke Power) shortly after graduation and held numerous administrative and management positions in their Marketing and Sales Divisions. She retired as Manager of the Retiree Affairs Division after a wonderful 37-year career. During her time as Retiree Affairs Manager, Glenda led one of the most successful “corporate retiree volunteer programs” in the Nation. She even had the opportunity to work with a delegation from Japan to begin their first retiree volunteer program in Osaka, Japan. Glenda continues to serve on the Advisory Board for the National Retiree Volunteer Coalition – a division of Volunteers of America based in Washington, DC. Glenda is well known for her motivational and humorous speaking and develops presentations that speak to the key issues of today – both in the business world and in personal life. She also is an “adjunct instructor” with Midland’s Technical College in Columbia, S. C. and was named “Adjunct Instructor of the Year in 2006. Glenda is a former Miss Thomasville, where she also won the Miss Congeniality Award. She is married to Dr. Warner Doles, III, who is the Senior Pastor at Fraley Memorial Baptist Church in Gastonia, N. C. She serves as the Church Pianist, Choral Music Director, teaches a couples Sunday School Class and does the “children’s sermon” each week in worship. Glenda and Warner have four (4) children and (6) grandchildren.
