KWAME JACKSON:

Apprentice Star and CEO & Founder Krimson by Kwame Executive Neckwear

You may remember him as the refined and confident finalist in the first season of NBC's reality series entitled "The Apprentice" starring business mogul Donald Trump. As a New York City based entrepreneur, professional speaker and media personality, he is poised for global aspirations.

Kwame holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Kenan-Flagler Business School and a Master of Business Administration degree from Harvard Business School.

Although he was flattered to make both People Magazine's 50 Most Beautiful People and its 50 Hottest Bachelors list in 2004, Kwame is a businessman first!

As a professional speaker, he regularly addresses universities, aspiring entrepreneurs and executive management teams at the world's leading companies on various topics such as leadership, team building, surviving while thriving in corporate America and the importance of being an entrepreneur. Kwame's 250+ lectures to date include engagements at General Electric, American Express, McDonald's, JP Morgan Chase, The Democratic National Convention, London School of Economics, and Cornell University. It is his business savvy, passion for excellence and the lessons he has learned in the boardroom that have given him the ability to inspire others to explore, embrace, and execute the keys to success.
